From the editor's desk

Life is a journey, and true growth and fulfillment lie in the process itself, not just the end result. By embracing each step as an opportunity for growth and learning and by acknowledging and appreciating the progress we make with each step, we boost our motivation and self-confidence. The small victories act as stepping stones, fueling our determination and propelling us forward toward our ultimate goal.

By focusing on the present moment, we can make the most of our resources and abilities, harnessing our energy and creativity to overcome obstacles one by one.

We all have inner strength. And we were with some, and we have developed some more. The difference is that not all of us use the strength we have to move in the direction of our dreams. And, you have to push yourself to the edge, as no one is going to do it for you, it's your life and it's your success journey. So the fundamental thing is that you must do everything on your own.

The dazzling performances shimmered the celebration into euphonious delight. Vote Of Thanks proposed by the members of the Students' Council. Teachers were felicitated for their contribution to the institution.

Janmashtami Celebration

Sweeter than honey, tastier than curd, pleasant indeed than any happiness, joy is the company, and the power of the name Krishna. Janmashtami is celebrated as the birthday of lord Krishna, one of the most powerful and famous incarnations of lord Vishnu.

To seek the blessings of Lord Krishna, Janmashtami was celebrated at SPSS premises on the 6th of September'23. The students from classes Nursery to II came traditionally dressed as Radha and Krishna.

A splendid colorful program was organised by the children where students presented songs, dances, and awesome performances. An awareness of Janmashtami, the mythological stories on Krishna, Radha, and Kans-through tableau and narrations.

The students were overjoyed when they broke the 'Dahi Handi' to grace the occasion.

Students participated and enjoyed the program with zest and zeal. Principal Mr. Pravin Kumar applauded the students for their efforts.

Spell Bee Activity

Language is a medium to express ourselves but correct language not only conveys our message correctly but also touches the heart of the other person. When it comes to writing, a sentence with a wrong spelling will never convey a correct message.

Spellings play an important role especially when it comes to creative writing and to brush up this skill of the students' Spell Bee Activity was organized in the Foundation wing. The students from Nursery to Class 2 participated in it.

Various activities like crosswords, Word train, letter recognition, spelling formation, see the picture and tell the names were conducted for the little orators.

The children surprised each one of us with their vocabulary and came up with various new words and earned applaud for their quick answers.
